Commuter Services Announces Winners for Bike to Work Week Challenge

Commuters Logged More Than 4,000 Miles During 2-Week Challenge

YORK, Pa. (July 3, 2012) . Commuter Services of Pennsylvania has announced the winners of their fourth annual Bike to Work Week Challenge. The two-week event took place May 14 to May 25. A total of 74 participants logged an impressive 4,054 miles while commuting by bicycle.

The Bike to Work Week Challenge was open to all employers in the participating counties of Adams, Berks, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry, and York, as well as commuters who live or work in these counties.

The campus of Penn State Hershey Medical Center and Penn State College of Medicine had seven employees participate in Bike to Work Week, taking first place as employer with the most participants, logging over 242 miles commuted by bike.

For the second year in a row, Kevin Kreider of Lancaster County won the grand prize for most miles logged- a total of 210 miles to his job at Tyson Foods in Lancaster. In recognition of his efforts, Kreider won a Bike Safety Pack that included a gift card, a water bottle, a bike lock, a lunch bag, and a T-shirt.
